* The arrangement of the index has been altered somewhat to increase its simplicity and comprehensiveness. All departments are included under the Index of Subjects. Separate countries, as Africa, India, etc., are treated as much as possible as a whole, with separate divisions under the general head. Statistics of societies and boards are given under Organized Work, and new departments of Finance, Needs, Progress and Value of Missions are tabulated.—D. L. PIERSON.

* We have attempted to make this index as complete and simple as possible. To this end the letter (a) in parenthesis after an article indicates that its length is over three pages, and the letter (b) indicates that the length is between one and three pages. Items not designated are less than a page in length. Italicized words in brackets refer to the same or kindred subjects in the index. We have this year omitted the sub-departments of ORGANIZATIONS and FINANCE, and have put these under heads of various societies and fields. Death notices come under the head of NECROLOGY, and BOOK REVIEWS are grouped together under one head.

* We have attempted to make this index as complete and simple as possible. To this end the letter (a) in parenthesis after an article indicates that its length is over three pages, and the letter (b) indicates that the length is from one to three pages. Items not so designated are less than a page in length. Italicised words in brackets refer to the same or kindred subjects in the index. Death notices come under the head of NECROLOGY.

The month in which a given page occurs may be ascertained by dividing the number of the page by 80 and adding 1 to the dividend (omitting decimals). Thus: $656 \div 80, + 1 = 9$ (September).—D. L. P.

The letter (a) indicates an article over 3 pages in length; the letter (b) a brief article from one to three pages in length. All other subjects indexed are less than one page in length. The number of the month when any given article appeared may be found by dividing the number of the page by 80 and adding 1 to the unit so obtained. For example: page 548, $\div 80 = 6, + 1 = 7$ (July).

* References to kindred subjects are indicated by italicized words in parentheses. The letter (a) indicates an article over 3 pages in length; the letter (b) a brief article from one to three pages in length. All other subjects indexed are less than one page in length. The number of the month when any given article appeared may be found by dividing the number of the page by 80 and adding 1 to the unit so obtained. For example: page 548, $\div 80 = 6, + 1 = 7$ (July).

* References to kindred subjects are indicated by italicized words in parenthesis. The letter (a) indicates an article over 3 pages in length; the letter (b) a brief article from one to three pages in length. All other subjects indexed are less than one page in length. The number of the month when any given article appeared may be found by dividing the number of the page by 80 and adding 1 to the unit so obtained. For example: page 548, $\div 80 = 6, + 1 = 7$ (July).

* References to kindred subjects are indicated by italicized words in parenthesis. The letter (a) indicates an article over 3 pages in length; the letter (b) a brief article from one to three pages in length. All other subjects indexed are less than one page in length. The number of the month when any given article appeared may be found by dividing the number of the page by 80 and adding 1 to the unit so obtained. For example: page 348, $\div 80 = 6, + 1 = 7$ (July).

* (a) indicates an article over 3 pages in length; the letter (b) a brief article from one to three pages in length. All other subjects indexed are less than one page in length. The number of the month when any given article appeared may be found by dividing the number of the page by 80 and adding 1 to the unit so obtained. For example: page 548, $\div 80 = 6, + 1 = 7$ (July).

Smiles and Happiness Everywhere!

That's What Christmas Ought to Be

Men, women and children who have been miserable, lonely, unwanted, are finding in our Homes new strength and joy and hope—new life through Christ.

YOU ARE INVITED TO COOPERATE with the Mission to Lepers in spreading smiles at Christmas time, and all through the year, among these suffering lepers whom Christ commended to our care.

MISERABLE, LONELY, UNWANTED!

IT COSTS LITTLE—TO HELP MUCH!

YOU CAN—

- Feed a starving leper ($1 a month)
- Provide a warm blanket ($2)
- Protect their bleeding feet with sandals (50 cents)
- Warm poor fingerless hands with woollen mittens (25 cents)
- Give a Christmas dinner to 200 undernourished lepers ($20)
- Support a leper child, or untainted child, for one year (only $30)

*Your Gift NOW to meet
one of these needs
will express the deepest meaning of Christmas*

FLEMING H. REVELL, JR., Treasurer

American Mission to Lepers, Inc.

Room 1119-Y, 156 Fifth Ave., New York

Please use my gift of $..... for food ; blankets ; sandals ; mittens ; Christmas dinner ; Christian teaching ; medicine ; to support a leper .
